

Interview with managers of project LECIM (Learning Cities For Migrants Inclusion). The project is implemented by the Italian non-profit association CIOFS-FP, which provides vocational education and training, work-oriented services, workshops, transnational exchanges and research Italian and European-wide. The national headquarter in Rome co-ordinates 14 Local Boards and almost 80 VET centres. Adolescents, young people, women, unemployed people, migrants and prisoners are the beneficiaries of such activities.